

CONTRIBUTORS

The 15th Street Manifesto Group authors are Stanley Aronowitz, William DiFazio, Harriet Fraad, Michael Pelias, and Richard D. Wolff.

Seth Adler is the conference coordinator of the Left Forum in New York City and was a founder of the national Jobs with Peace campaign. Currently, he teaches sociology at Pace University in New York and his most recent writing is on unconscious politics and alienation on the left.

Peter Bratsis is a member of the Situations collective and the author of Everyday Life and the State ( Paradigm Publishers, 2006). He is currently a lecturer in political theory at University of Salford in Manchester, England.

John Clark is the Gregory F. Curtin Distinguished Professor in the Humane Letters and the Professions and Professor of Philosophy at Loyola University in New Orleans. His books include The Philosophical Anarchism of William Godwin, The Anarchist Moment, Environmental Philosophy, Anarchy, Geography, Modernity: The Radical Social Thought of Élisée Reclus, and the forthcoming, Aborder l'impossible (Taking on the Impossible). He is co-moderator of Research on Anarchism and writes a column, "Imagined Ecologies," for the journal, Capitalism Nature Socialism.

Renato Cristi is Professor of Philosophy at Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Canada. He is the author of Carl Schmitt and Authoritarian Liberalism and Hegel on Freedom and Authority and numerous articles of and on political philosophy.

Josephine Iakovidou is a doctoral candidate in the department of Political Science and History at Panteion University of Athens.

Kostas Kanellopoulos is adjunct lecturer in the department of Tourism Business at the Technological Institute of Piraeus.

Jason Kosnoski is an Assistant Professor of Political Science at the University of Michigan— Flint. His book, John Dewey and the Habits of Ethical Life: an Aesthetics of Organizing in a Liquid World is forthcoming from Lexington Press in 2010.

Loukia Kotronaki is a doctoral candidate in the department of Political Science and History at Panteion of Athens.

Jeff Lustig was Professor of Government at California State University Sacramento. He is editor of Remaking California: Reclaiming the Public Good (2010) and authored Corporate Liberalism: the Origins of Modern American Political Theory (1982). He has written on American and California politics and political theory, the corporatization of the modern university, and immigration, race and class. He was founder and chair of Northwest Labor History Project, 1984-88, president of the campus local of the CSU Faculty Union (California Faculty Association), 1997-2002, a statewide officer of CFA, and a member of AAUP's Collective Bargaining Council.

Costas Panayotakis is currently completing a book on capitalism, scarcity, and the promise of economic democracy. He has published various articles on Greece and has been interviewed regarding the current Greek crisis on TV and radio programs in the U.S. and abroad. He is a member of the Situations Collective.

Noam Tsika is a Ph.D. candidate in Cinema Studies at New York University, and his dissertation examines the politics of military documentaries made between 1939-1945. He is the author of Gods and Monsters: A Queer Film Classic as well as numerous articles and book chapters on American cinema, Television crime dramas of the 1960's, and "Don't Ask, Don't Tell."

Dominic Wetzel is an Instructor in the department of Sociology at St. Cloud State University, He recently completed his dissertation which examines the underlying negative—utopic desire in the unexpected revival of religious discourse and practice in modernity. This revival is considered in response and in relation to the failures of the Enlightenment Project.

SITUATIONS

PROJECT OF THE RADICAL IMAGINATION

Subscriptions to Situations

---

NAME

---

ADDRESS

---

CITY

STATE

ZIP

---

EMAIL

$20 Individual,
Single Year, Two Issues

$80 Library
Single Year, Two Issues

Please make checks payable to SITUATIONS

MAIL TO:

SITUATIONS

c/o The Center for the Study of Culture, Technology and Work
CUNY Graduate Center
365 Fifth Avenue, Rm. 6115
New York, NY 10016-4309