

In Memoriam

Ellen Willis

(December 14, 1941 - November 9, 2006)

The editorial collective of Situations mourns the recent death of Ellen Willis. The contributions she made to radical feminism, psychoanalytic critique, and cultural criticism will be deeply missed in these difficult times. Her untimely death has taken from the radical imagination a non-conforming, insightful and incisive voice. Much of the substance of her work has not yet been realized, and it is in that spirit that Situations will dedicate a future issue to her work and legacy.
